GIVES REVIEW OF WORK BY RED CROSS

David Brown, of Potomac Division Speaks Here

RECEPTION GIVEN HIM

Carroll Pierce Tells of Home Work Accomplished—Ready For Fourth Anual Membership Roll Call

The local Red Cross Chapter entertained at a beautiful reception last night at the Chamber of Commerce in honor of David Brown, associate director of the Potomac Division of the American Red Cross.

The auditorium was well filled with representative Alexandrians, when Robert S. Jones, chairman of the local branch, introduced Mr. Brown, who made a splendid address, giving a short review of the work done by the American Red Cross in this country and in Europe, both during the world war and now. He emphasized the importance of continued interest in this work, and continued support from the public. Speaking of the need for service in caring for the families of soldiers killed in battle and of the numbers yet in hospitals to be visited and their families kept posted as to their condition, also any help extended them particularly in caring for cases of sickness.

Following Mr. Brown, Carroll Pierce spoke on the local chapter, giving a synopsis of the activities of the home service section, and outlining the plans for the coming year, which include putting on a full time Red Cross nurse for bedside nursing for the people of this city.

The auditorium was attractively decorated with flags, red cross posters and vases of red and white cosmos on the mantels in each end of the room.

The decorations were done by a specially appointed committee from the chapter, and these ladies were well repair for their labors, by the exclamation last night over the unusual beauty of the scene.

After the speaking an informal reception was held in the club rooms of the chamber, which were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, cosmos and red dahlias, and the reception committee was composed of the officers of the Alexandria branch of the Red Cross.

In the rear room, where members of the canteen corps served refreshments, a huge table was set in a most attractive manner, with a centerpiece of large red dahlias and the color scheme of red and white carried out in all decorations. About thirty young ladies, in their Red Cross uniforms served the refreshments.

The fourth annual roll call will be held in Alexandria, beginning next week, and all should be prepared to renew their membership. The chapter has arranged for an intensive campaign, and it should be of especial interest in that the money will come back into the work of the local Red Cross.

All thinking people should realize the wonderful work done in the past, now going on and the need for future activities, and gladly pay the one dollar for their membership at the first call at their home next week.

ENGLISH COAL MINERS OUT MONDAY

Downing Street Optimistic and Refuses to Make Concessions

PLANS FOOD SUPPLY

Men Said to Have Funds to Carry on Bitter Fight — May Last Six Weeks

London, Oct. 16.—Every preparation possible has been made by the Government in anticipation of the strike of more than a million coal miners, called for Monday. For weeks the strike was regarded as probable, and now that the call has been issued, taken toward providing food for the large centers of population and for conserving as far as possible what coal is on hand.

Downing street takes an optimistic view of the situation, and although the Cabinet is reported unanimously opposed to any concessions to the miners there are indications that the hope of averting a lengthy stoppage of work has not been abandoned.

The strike order was sent to the miners today following consideration of Lloyd George's letter, which the miners' leaders held altogether unsatisfactory. Although Smilley and other national leaders of the miners used all possible efforts to avert the strike, they are now prepared to fight to the bitter end.

The miners are said to be well supplied with funds and the strike may last as long as six weeks. During this period large sections of the public which have been unable to purchase adequate reserves of coal would suffer the greatest hardships. There also is the possibility that the coal strike may only be the beginning of a series of industrial outbreaks, including strikes by the railway men and the transport workers, who, with the miners, form the triple alliance.

It would cause no surprise if Premier Lloyd George seized the opportunity to plunge the country into a general election, relying on public opinion to support him on a platform denying the right of the Ministry to dictate the policy of the Government and opposing any measure which would go beyond the present home rule for Ireland.

With Parliament reassembling on the day of the beginning of the strike, there is certain to be some exceedingly lively sessions.

Aside from the political aspects of the strike and the personal inconvenience it is bound to cause, there is the more serious question of its effect on international trade. At the moment British industry is preparing to enter into competition with America for the trade of Europe and the other parts of the world. The lack of financial support has been a serious handicap here, and the British have seen with dismay the Americans obtaining supremacy of several markets and forming combinations with shippers, traders and manufacturers of other countries, notably Germany.

If the coal strike should last a month, industry would be so badly crippled it would be set back another year. This argument was used without avail with the miners.

The Government has issued orders forbidding the further export of coal. Transatlantic liners scheduled to sail this week-end will get away, but later ones probably will be held up. For home consumption only one hundred weight of coal will be sold at a time. Horse racing will continue tomorrow but it is expected to stop Monday. All train service will be greatly reduced and the gas supply will be restricted.

Thousands of army lorries are being concentrated at various centers to facilitate the transport of food supplies.

The triple alliance will meet Monday.

HARDING'S HOME TOWN WELCOMES COX

Governor Gets Rousing Reception From Big Crowd At Marion

LOUDLY APPLAUDED

Especially When Candidate Invites Questions, Promising Immunity From Arrest.

Marion, O., Oct. 16.—A rousing reception yesterday was given Governor Cox, Democratic Presidential candidate, at Marion, the home of Senator Harding, his Republican opponent. Several thousaid persons cheered and applauded the Governor. The Senator was out of town on his Southern trip.

The big crowd heard the Governor from a temporary platform near the railroad station. Several blocks from the front porch which the Governor has ridiculed for weeks. Thousands packed around the stand and hundreds were perched on freight cars and housetops. Automobiles were parked thickly for blocks in every direction.

Arriving at 11 o'clock an hour late two brass bands escorted the Governor to the platform nearby, to which he walked amid handshaking crowds and had literally to fight his way through the cheering throng. There were a few cries of 'Hurrah for Harding!"

Opening his address the Governor told how he had gone through the country touching elbows with the people learning their problems and permitting them to ask questions.

Seeing railroad men in working clothes in the crowd, the Governor paid a tribute to "the boys in overalls" and said: "We have fought together the forces of reaction," declaring that the same forces of reaction and big business were arrayed against him.

"They want the rule of the bayonet and not the golden rule,' 'said the Governor, reiterating that he had never "thrown a uniform of a soldier into an Ohio strike."

The Governor's League arguments were loudly applauded. He repeated his charges against "the Senatorial oligarchy," and other arguments for the League, including that of a 'conspiracy of silence."

He declared that the League covenant could not be secured at any Republican headquarters in the country. Like his custom with other audiences the Governor invited questions. "No man in my meetings is going to be locked up for asking me questions," said the Governor, and the crowd gave a loud cheer.

More cheers greeted a remark when some of the crowd objected to interruptions of the questions, and the Governor said: "Let him alone. I don't care whether Democrats or Republicans ask questions. I'm not making this fight as a Democrat, but as an American."

One of the first questions was about the inequality of League voting power between the United States and Great Britain and the Governor gave his explanation that Hitchcock's reservations would have met the situation.

The Governor's views on the Irish question were given and cheered. The Governor spoke about a half hour and made no personal reference to his opponent. In closing he restated his position for the League with any good reservation. He again asked for "some new faces in the Senate" and urged the election of the Democratic candidates for Senator and also for Congress in this district. He was introduced here by Fred E. Guthery, candidate for Congressman.

At Delaware, his first morning stop, a crowd of several hundred heard the Governor from the Courthouse steps, after an automobile parade, from which the candidate greeted students drawn up at Ohio Wesleyan University, and viewed vegetable and other county fair exhibits.

Although the Governor protested to national headquarters against leaving his rear platform in order to conserve his strength, arrangements previously made caused him to go half a mile to the Delaware rostrum and put his train half and hour behind schedule. Religious arguments for the League were stressed again today by the Governor.

APPEALS FOR FUNDS.

To the Democrats of the South:

Let me appeal to every Democratic man and woman in the South to immediately make a contribution to the National Democratic Campaign fund.

The tide to victory has turned. We are sure of victory if the proper financial support is given. The election of a Democratic president means peace, prosperity and happiness for the South.

No one can tell just what will happen in the event of Republican success.

The professional politician of the North is jealous of the prosperity of the South.

The funds should be immediately contributed. Delay may be fatal. Send your check today to your State Finance Chairman.

Joe Sparks,
Assistant Treasurer,
Democratic National Committee.

WOMAN OFFERED BRIBE BY BOOZE RING

Name of Congressman Linked With Whisky Ring

AFTER TONIC MAKERS

Whiskey Hearse Seized—New York Bootleggers Given Bond — Jury Probes Hylan Dinner.

Chicago Oct. 16.—The name of a United States Congressman yesterday was brought before the Federal grand jury investigating an alleged whisky ring by a Government official in telling of a $10,000 bribe offered him by a woman to stop prosecution in connection with recent whisky traffic disclosures here.

The woman, the witness testified, frequently conferred with the Congressman. The official said he was led to believe that the Congressman was interested in the whisky "ring."

After a conference between Federal officials yesterday it was said that Mrs. Antoinette Duryea, for some time a familiar figure around the Federal building, and Harry D. Allen, formerly a Department of Justice agent would be asked to tell officials whether they knew anything of the alleged "ring."

Federal Judge Landis actively entered the investigation today when he called two wholesale manufacturing druggists before him to explain an alleged excessive amount of alcohol in their products—hair tonic and bitters.

Judge Landis looked over a weird assortment of bottles on his bench in the Federal Courtroom. There were samples of bitters and a hair tonic. All had been seized in a raid of three months. The hair tonic was labeled "alcohol 21 per cent," and the bitters "24 per cent."

"Why, the idea?" said the Judge. "Selling this stuff at tonic prices and it's perfectly good whisky."

New York, Oct. 16.—The first arrest in connection with the hunt for New York's alleged liquor "curb mark ot" came yesterday when two men were taken into custody on an automobile hearse carrying alcohol on a ferryboat to New Jersey.

Six tightly nailed wooden boxes, each containing a five gallon jug of grain alcohol, were found in the hearse. Ralph Fasulo and Charles Bosco, when arrested are said by Federal agents to have confessed they were being paid for transporting the liquid, and for this particular "job" $20.

Prohibition enforcement agents asserted they had been hearing of a "hearse saloon" for some time past in connection with the liquor "curb," but had had difficulty in tracing it.

The two prisoners, named Fasulo and Bosco, were arraigned later before United States Commissioner Hitchcock, charged with illegal transportation of liquor. They furnished bonds of $1,000 each for a hearing today.

Prohibition agents also seized 80 cases and two cartons of whisky found in an East One Hundred and Thirty-sixth Street garage, the whisky was labelled "Lynchburg," but all marks which might have disclosed the consignee had been removed. Agents expressed belief that the liquor had been stolen.

Charles R. O'Connor, Federal prohibition director in New York State, who returned today from a conference in Washington with Federal Prohibition Director Kramer and Internal Revenue Commissioner Williams, issued a statement denying rumors that he is to resign.

The Federal grand jury in Brooklyn yesterday began a formal investigation of general charges made by a reporter for a Philadelphia paper that Mayor Hylan and other public officials recently attended a dinner at a Brooklyn inn at which liquor flowed and that no effort was made to check the flow. It was not charged that the Mayor had tasted a drop.

J. C. Daschbach, the Philadelphia reporter, was the first witness. On leaving the jury room he declined to comment on his testimony.

District Attorney Lewis, of Kings county, who also appeared before the jury, said he had seen nothing that he was sure was liquor.

MISREPRESENTING THE FACTS

The statement put forth by a group of more or less distinguished Republicans, including Elihu Root, George W. Wickersham, Lyman Abbott, Nicholas Murray Butler and others, in favor of the Harding and Coolidge ticket, contains a number of misstatements which, in view of the supposedly high character of the signers, are absolutely inexcusable. It is unnecessary to go at length into a refutation of all these. A sample or two will show the partisan animus that actuated these gentlemen. Thus they say:

"A majority of the Senate voted to ratify the League amendment with modifications, but Mr. Wilson refused to accept these modifications and insisted upon the agreement absolutely unchanged, and Democratic Senators sufficient in number to defeat the treaty as modified followed Mr. Wilson by voting against ratification."

President Wilson never "insisted upon the agreement absolutely unchanged." Time and again, and notably in his letter to Senator Glass regarding the platform adopted by the Virginia Democrats, he expressed himself as being entirely willing to accept any and all reservations that were not completely destructive of the peace treaty. Republican emphasis upon this point is purely malicious and intended solely to have a political effect.

The effort to place upon Democratic Senators the responsibility for defeat of the treaty is disingenuous in the extreme. The vote by which the treaty was defeated on March 19 stood as follows: For the treaty—Republicans, 23; Democrats, 23. It will thus be seen that 21 Democrats, sinking their personal preferences in a patriotic desire to see something accomplished, and overcoming their objections to the reservations added by the Republicans joined 28 of the latter in voting for the peace treaty. The defeat of that great measure was brought about by the 12 Republican Senators—Knox, Johnson, Borah, Brandegee, etc., the bitter-enders—who voted against it. Had they cast their votes with the 49 recorded in the treaty's favor the total 61, would have insured the two-thirds affirmative vote required by the Constitution. Inasmuch as the Senate is Republican the majority party must bear the onus of all discreditable acts done by that body. The defeat of the peace treaty, therefore, rests not upon the Democrats, but upon the Republicans.

Another peculiarly contemptible evasion of the facts is that, in quoting from Senator Harding's speeches to justify their support of him, these Republican backers give no utterance later than that of August 28, nearly two months ago. In the period that has elapsed Harding has shifted his position half a dozen times. At Baltimore he said that he had absolutely no constructive program whatever so far as concerns Europe. At Des Moines he declared that he was not for the interpretation, but for the absolute rejection, of the League of Nations. To Taft he has said one thing, and to Johnson and Borah exactly the reverse. But these Republican sponsers would seek to have the American public believe that their candidate has well-defined views on the League, though they know very well that he has no convictions of any kind, but is simply playing to get the votes.

FEDERAL RESERVE.

For the benefit of bankers, business men and the public generally the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond has issued an authoritative and comprehensive little book on the organization and operation of the federal reserve system. It answers many practical questions regarding the new banking law and meets a number of objections raised by persons not fully cognizant of the benefits and merits of the system.

Such matters as mobilized credit, reserve accounts, elastic currency, rediscounts, par collections and the immediate credit symbol are clearly and succinctly explained. The book further shows in non-technical language the benefits which have accrued to the banking and business interests of the country as a result of the establishment of the federal system. Among these are listed—increased financial security, more generous credit accommodations, elasticity of currency from rediscounts, an easier system of the transfer of funds, mobilization of reserves when and where needed, and economy of time and money in check collection.

The book, entitled "Questions and Answers on the Federal Reserve System," has been mailed to all the banks and thrust companies in the fifth federal reserve district. First it takes up the general plan of the organization of the federal reserve system, showing next how banking institutions may attain membership. The functions of the federal reserve banks are then described, this capter going into the questions of mobilization of reserves, the elasticity of currency, rediscounts and eligible paper, and being followed by a discussion of the reserves of member banks, collections, transfers and currency shipments, state bank and trust company membership and incidental legal provisions.

Member banks will find the book of interest since it is designed to make clearer many points regarding the operation of the federal reserve act; to non-member banks it will be of value as explaining the manifold advantages and privileges of membership; to the business man generally it will prove worth while inasmuch as it shows how the federal reserve bank in each of the twelve districts safeguards and strengthens the financial, industrial and commercial enterprises of the nation.

The book is well printed on good paper; it is neatly bound in cloth, has a complete table of contents and is fully and conveniently indexed.

THE LUMBER SITUATION.

In regard to the lumber market the American Lumberman of Chicago, says:

"Lumber manufacturers in all parts of the country have on hand ample reserve supplies of lumber to meet any immediate demand no matter how rapidly the housing situation may develop. Manufacturers as a whole have apparently adopted the policy of producing and putting in a pile a normal supply of lumber and when this normal level is reached, production will be curtailed to prevent undue accumulation. For example, a number of telegrams received by the American Lumberman indicate that hardwood manufacturers, on the whole, intend to continue production until normal stocks are on hand and thereafter will materially curtail production. In fact a number of the manufacturers at this time are curtailing production somewhat, so that they may continue to offer employment to their men and at the same time accumulate stocks slowly. Hardwood stocks, on the whole, have not as yet reached the normal level. Out of a list of eighteen representative companies in the South and East only five reported normal or above normal stocks.

"The demand for Southern pine, Douglas fir, North Carolina pine, hemlock and other ordinary construction wood continues to be light. Shipments are not heavy because of lack of orders and also because in some sections the car shortage continues to be so severe that shipments cannot be made. The specialty woods, such as cypress are meeting with a very keen demand and prices have a rising tendency.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Another series of appeals to the Federal Reserve Board was made yesterday by representatives of cotton factors in the South who asked that "at least an intimation" be given reserve banks that the notes of the cotton factors held by the individual bankers should be subject to rediscount.

It was insisted by bankers, as well as several Senators who appeared with the delegation of cotton factor men, that under a ruling of the board more than a year the individual banker was being prevented from rediscounting this paper.

At the North Alfred street grounds tomorrow at 3 p. m., the Dreadnaught's will meet the Engineer School Detachment eleven, from Camp Humphreys, which is bound to prove a thriller, as the latter team is composed of ex-college stars from various technical universities from all over the country, now training at Uncle Sam's largest engineering camp. The local management were extremely fortunate in booking this crack eleven for Sunday's game, as it will afford the local following of judging what the Dreadnaughts can do when opposed by men with college football experience. The big "D" lads have been practicing hard all this week, and will hold a final workout at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the High School grounds under the direction of Coach Billy Crouch, when all candidates are requested to be on hand promptly.

The Washington Street All-Stars met their defeat at the hands of the Yankee A. C., yesterday by the score of 12 to 6. Meade starred for the Yanks, while Lunsford made all the big gains for the All-Stars. Both teams played well, making it an interesting game. Nalls refereed.

Baltimore, Oct. 16.—Milton Smith, 2108 North Fulton avenue, conductor on a Guilford avenue car, yesterday afternoon noticed a small package lying on a seat in the car. He found that it contained $7,000 in Liberty onds and promptly turned it over to the company's office.

Private Slays Another at Walter Reed.

Dale, a private of the Eight troop Twelfth Cavalry, confined in the detention ward for patients under observation for insanity at Walter Reed Hospital, crashed a bedside table over the head of Attendant George A. Campaign Against High Costs To Be Abandoned November 1

Washington, Oct. 15.—The Department of Justice will abandon its high-cost-of-living campaign November 1, is was learned here yesterday.

Failure of Congress to grant sufficient appropriations to carry on the department activities and the conviction that rapid decline in prices no longer necessitates a governmental drive are given as causes for the abandonment of the government activities.

The action does not mean, however, that the effort of the department to check coal price advances and to prevent violation of the Lever act will end. The fight on coal prices is now being carried on by grand juries, and it was stated here yesterday that Federal grand juries will meet in Martinsburg, West Virginia, and in Scranton, Pa., October 18. The Martinsburg jury will consider the bituminous coal prices and the Scranton jury the anthracite prices.

HARDING HOME TOWN WELCOMES COX

At Delaware he also urged women's support, saying:

"I believe God Almighty intended that the body of American women should arrive at the front this year, just as our boys arrived at the front, to save the civilization of the world."

An unusually lively time with League questioners was had by the candidate at Delaware. Asked regarding the sending of Americans to fight in European quarrels, Governor Cox reiterated that Congress only could declare war, and that the League council's authority was advisory only, leaving America's policy to be determined by Congress.

Coal Crisis Hits Gotham
With $25 A Ton Prospect.

New Yory, Oct. 16.—Twenty and twenty-five dollars a ton will be the price of hard coal in this city this winter, in the opinion of many coal dealers.

Dealers are combining to insure equitable distribution of the coal on hand, so that no one will suffer. They plan to work hand in hand with the health department. The fuel will be doled out on a day-to-day basis.

All hard coal has been diverted from the East to remedy an acute shortage in the Northwest. Not until December 1 will coal in any quantities arrive here.

The Retail Dealers' Association, through its secretary, announced that what coal there is on hand will be divided with equity.

In outlying parts of New York greedy dealers have jacked up the price to $17, $19 and $22 per ton. Residents in Far Rockaway have banded together against this action and have addressed complaints to the Attorney General. Boards of trade at Lawrence, Cedarhurst and Rockaway Beach have demanded a Federal investigation.

Plot To Bomb Mayor of Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—One man was under arrest and four others were sought by police here yesterday, following a report that an attempt was to have been made to blow up the home of James Cousens, Detroit's millionaire mayor.

"His Wife in Eyes Of God," She Says In Insurance Suit.

Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—Contending that she was his wife "in the eyes of God," Alma Rosbeck Tieke yesterday sought recovery in Federal court of $7,500 war risk insurance of Carl Fred Tieke, killed in action in the Meuse-Argonne.

The suit told of a marriage planned but prevented by the call to arms and the inability of her lover to obtain a furlough. The little home was planned and the furniture bought. When Tieke finally did get beack to the city for one day it was Sunday and there was no way of getting a marriage license.

So they pledged themselves as man and wife before God and sealed their agreement with a kiss. They never saw each other again. Ticke's $10,000 insurance was allotted his estate, because he could not leave it to a girl without having been legally married.

Movies On Sunday Dead in Baltimore

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 16.—Baltimore Sunday afternoon movies received a knockout blow here yesterday from the Court of Appeals. A proposition to let Baltimoreans vote on having cinema pictures after 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, was returned marked "Disapproved."

The action of the appeals court reverses the ruling of Judge Morris in the Supreme Court, Baltimore, and is a signal victory for the Lord's Day Alliance, heading the fight against the Sunday movies plan. The movie fans wanted to vote for the open cinema along with the larger political questions on election day, November 2.

NOT AN ISOLATED CASE

Many Similar Cases in Alexandria and Vicinity

This Alexandria man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

H. J. Duner, policeman 310 North Columbus Street, Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a good many years and have always had good results. Before I tried them I was troubled a great deal with pains in the small of my back, which were so bad I could hardly bend over sometimes. I had miserable headaches and dizzy spells, too. The kidney secretions passed too freely. I am glad to say that since I have used Doan's Kidney Pills I have been free from all that trouble and have felt a great deal better in every way. I am not afraid of my back hurting. I use a few of Doan's once in awhile and they keep my kidneys in fine shape."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Duner had. Foster-Milburn Co. Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

POLAND CALLED FOR TRIAL BY WORLD LEAGUE

Paris, Oct. 16.—Poland has been summoned to the bar of the league of nations. It is the first time a nation has been called before such an international body to answer to a jury of its peers.

Leon Bourgeois, president of the council of the league of nations, has called Ignace Paderewski, Poland's representative, to answer to the occupation of Vilna. Bourgeois declared that the council, including the Ambassadors at Paris of Japan and Spain, charged with him to follow the movement of Polish affairs, were surprised at the occupation of Vilna following the armistice, and that if the city were not at once evacuated the League would take action.

Bankruptcy Referee Says "Wizard's" Clients Are Guilty of Usury.

Boston, Oct. 16.—Charles Ponzi, whose international postal coupon scheme and offers of 50 per cent profits in 45 days collapsed two months, ago, with millions of public investments tied up in it, was declared insolvent yesterday by James D. Olmstead, referee in bankruptcy. In a report submitted to the Federal district court, the referee found that Ponzi had no partners.

Kremlin Invaded By Moscow Rebels, Is Report to Germany.

Zurich, Oct. 16.—According to an announcement of the German foreign ministry, a great revolt is reported to have started in Moscow. The Kremlin there is declared to have been invaded.

Mexico City, Oct. 16.—The volcano of Popocatepetl was in eruption yesterday for the first time in more than 400 years. A dense cloud of black smoke is belching forth.

With the first sign of activity of the ancient crater a panic started in the nearby towns, but this was allayed when observation failed to disclose any lava.
